Estate of Reuben W. Currier

Probate N. S. 6227

Died testate (about 1889)

Will dated 3/24/1886 - signed, sealed, three witnesses

Provided:

- First - To son, Albert B. Currer, - $25.00 and various articles of personalty
- Second- To son, William A. Currier - articles of personalty
- Third - "I give and bequeath to my sons Orien S. Currier and Sylvanus D. Currier all my real estate on the north side of the road leading from East Kingston Depot to Kingston being about twenty acres of land and all the buildings thereon with all the farming utensils and tools connected therewith, including oxcart and horse cart, to have and to hold the same to them their heirs and assigns forever."
- Fourth- To son, Sylvanus D. Currier - articles of personalty
- Fifth - To Annah E. Holmes - $1.00 and article of personalty
- Sixth - To Lois Holmes - article of personalty
- Seventh - To John H. Currer - article of personalty
- Eighth - To Sarah L. Currer - articles of personalty
- Ninth - To Ella Currier - articles of personalty
- Tenth - To Orien S. Currer - all real and personal estate not otherwise disposed of.
- Eleventh- "It is my will that none of my property shall be divided as long as my wife Lois S. Currier shall live."
- Twelfth- Orien S. Currier and Sylvanus D. Currer nominated as Executors."

Will allowed in common form by decree entered on 10/31/1889 and Orien S. Currer and Sylvanus D. Currier appointed Executors. (no bond filed)

No further papers.

Note:

Lois S. Currier died testate about 1889 - see Probate Records N. S. #6226.

The property concerned in this title is said to have been in the Currier family for generations. The original deed could not be located after considerable search. It is felt that the third clause in the above will sufficiently describes the property to justify starting at this point.

Estate of Orien S. Currier

Probate N. S. 8664

Died testate (about 1895)

Will dated 12/15/1890 - signed, sealed, three witnesses

Provided:

- First - Executors to pay debts and funeral expenses
- Second - To Sylvanus D. Currier, Albert P. Currier and John H. Currier, $1.00 each - to Edward A. Holmes, $25.00 - to Anna E. Holmes, $100.00 - to Lois M. Holmes, $100.00
- Third - To Trustees of Cemetery in East Kingston - $100.00 in trust
- Fourth - Executors to erect stone at testator's grave
- Fifth - To Trustees of M. E. Church - $300.00 in trust.
- Sixth - To Trustees of M. E. Church - $50.00 in trust.
- Seventh - Expresses desire that Executors purchase interest of Sylvanus D. Currier in homestead so that it will form a part of the estate.
- Eighth - "It is my desire that the old Homestead shall forever remain in the name of "The Currier Homestead" and that everything therein shall substantially remain there, and not to be removed therefrom, and that the house shall be occupied continuously, and never to be closed, and that the interest and income of all the rest and residue of my personal property, be annually expended for the benefit, care and improvement of said property, real and personal; and for this purpose, I hereby devise and bequeath said Homestead, and said personal property, including all paintings, pictures, drawings and books, and all personal property of whatever nature, in trust, to my dear niece, Anna E. Holmes, and my grand niece Lois M. Holmes, they to appoint their successors or successor, upon the death of either; great care being taken that they select in good season. In case of failure to appoint, then the judge of Probate, having jurisdiction, may appoint; great care being taken in selection of successors. The expense of carrying on said farm and homestead to be paid from the income itself, together with the income of my personal property as above described."

Ninth - Anna E. Holmes and Charles H. Smith nominated as Executors. Will allowed in common form by decree entered on 11/13/1895, and Areanna E. Holmes appointed Executrix (Charles H. Smith having declined), filing personal surety bond of $3500.00.
